WORKING AFTER AGE 65

If you are age 65 or over you can continue to work in the Bakery and Confectionery Industry and receive your pension benefits. If you continue to work in the industry after age 65, you will continue to earn pension credit and your pension benefits will be adjusted annually to take into account any additional pension amounts that you earned in the prior year.

If you want to begin receiving your pension benefits at age 65 and continue to work in the Industry, you must file a pension application. Pension benefits are paid the month following receipt of your pension application. Pension benefits are not retroactive to age 65.

V. APPLICATIONS AFFIDAVIT

I hereby request a Pension Evaluation from the Bakery and Confectionery Union and Industry International Pension Fund. The above statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that a false statement may result in inaccurate information being provided to me. I also understand that I must complete a pension application before pension benefits can be paid to me. I understand that if I provide false information on a pension application, I may be disqualified for receipt of pension benefits or my pension amount may be reduced or suspended, and that the Trustees have the right to recover any payments made to me because of a false statement.
